Department of the History of Hungarian State and Law

1855

Teaching of the History of Law and State as a university subject begun in 1855.

1872

The first professor of the History of Hungarian Law was Imre Hajnik in 1872.

Nowadays

The educational task of the Department nowadays is to establish professionally the legal education, and to give an overview of the prehistory of construction and terminology of the branches of law by teaching the main historical tendencies of Hungarian law. It teaches the features and the traditional elements of the Hungarian legal culture. It acquaints the students with the Hungarian parliamentarism and the history of the Parliament, in the framework of the history of European parliamentarism.
